

The Typical Ranger

Average age: 24

Average height/weight: 69"/174

Time in service/Time on station: 4.5 years/2 years

Military training: Basic Combat Training and Advanced Individual Training, Airborne School (3 weeks), Ranger Indoctrination Program (1 month), Pre-Ranger Course (3 weeks), Ranger School (2 months), Ranger First Responder Medical Training (1 week), Primary Leadership Development Course (4 weeks)

Experience: OEF/OIF deployments x 1-4, Joint Readiness Training Center rotation x 1, Joint Readiness Exercise x 1, live fire exercises x 25

Rank: About half are specialists (pay grade E-4)

Army Physical Fitness Test Score: 275 out of 300

Awards: Expert Infantryman Badge, Combat Infantryman Badge, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, GWOT Expeditionary and Service medals, Ranger Tab, Parachutist Badge

Other Statistics: Less than half are married; average number of children is 1.75; most have some college; about half are Ranger qualified (earned Ranger Tab)

Rangers Lead the Way!

U.S. ARMY SPECIAL OPERATIONS COMMAND
PUBLIC AFFAIRS OFFICE

(910) 432-6005 / <http://www.soc.mil>